

International Assignment Services (IAS)

International assignment programs are aimed at getting the right talent to the right place at the right time in support of your global business strategy. To remain competitive, international assignment programs must balance cost control, competitive compensation and regulatory compliance. As a business owner or executive, you are looking for a professional service provider that has the global tax knowledge to ensure the success of your program. Our experienced international assignment team will help you align your business goals with regulatory requirements while ensuring that you safeguard your most valuable asset: human capital.

Are you...

Concerned about corporate tax implications of your international assignment program?
Interested in knowing how to effectively communicate your program to assignees and other stakeholders?
Concerned about complying with local home and host tax regulations?
Interested in attracting and retaining high-quality assignees with competitive and tax-effective compensation?

Overwhelmed at the thought of providing assignees with the tax expertise they need to be compliant in their host country?
In need of personnel training relating to international assignment programs?
Concerned about tax equalization policies and navigating the tangled web of international tax treaties?

Solutions

Our international assignment team will serve you with our extensive global tax knowledge and our structural understanding of international assignment programs. Once your specified needs are identified, we will work with you and your team to formulate solutions in impacted areas, which may include:
